CITY OF KINGSTON, N. Y., WEDNESDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 3, 1920

PRICE THREE CENTS.

JUDGE MILLER APPEARS TO HAVE DEFEATED SMITH BY ABOUT 50,000

While "Al" Carried New York City by 319,000, Up-State Vote Has Reduced His Lead to 19,959 and When 891 Missing Districts Are Heard From Miller Men Claim He Will Have 53,994 Plurality.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 3.—Judge Nathan L. Miller's plurality in the final count of ballots in the New York gubernatorial contest will be approximately 53,994, according to statements made by the Republican leaders today after the complete figures for New York City had been announced.

These returns show the city was carried by Governor Smith by more than 319,000 votes. With 891 districts out of 7,308 in the state missing, all outside of Greater New York, Smith is leading by 19,959 votes.

Outside of New York, with 891 districts missing, Miller had a lead of 299,652 votes over Smith. Miller supporters claim their candidate will receive an average plurality of 85 in a majority of the 891 districts yet to be heard from.

Governor Smith and his adherents were still refusing to concede defeat in the face of the triumphant predictions from the Republican leaders.

There was considerable discussion in political circles here concerning the possibility of the final result depending on the official count, with a possibility that the vote may be close enough to win a request for a recount.

The five Socialists who were twice ousted from the assembly, Louis Waldman, August Glawens, Samuel DeWitt, Samuel Orr and Charles Solomon, were all re-elected in their respective districts, according to available returns.

Senator Wadsworth has been re-elected to the United States senate against his opponent, Lieutenant-Governor Walker, but Wadsworth is running far in the rear of the remainder of the Republican ticket. With some 20,000 districts missing, Wadsworth has 467,150 to Walker's 250,486, but in the same districts Harding polled a vote of 2,235,003 and Miller polled 1,410,221.

Miller's vote in the up-state cities did not quite meet the expectation of the Republican leaders in the rural districts it is believed inclement weather kept down the gubernatorial vote.

Many of the up-state districts still missing are rural districts where Governor Smith is presumed to be in disfavor.

Although Governor Smith has not yet conceded his defeat rumors are afloat that he will become a candidate for mayor of New York in the event that the final figures show him defeated.

Senator Harding carried every county in New York state with the exception of Hamilton county, where Cox has a lead of 32 in the returns of eleven districts. Dutchess county, which includes the home town of Franklin D. Roosevelt, Democratic vice-presidential candidate, gave the Republican presidential ticket a plurality of 11,123, or more than two to one over the Democratic ticket.

New York state's leading officials for the next two years on the face of present returns are: Governor, Lieutenant-Governor, Jeremiah Wood; secretary of state, John J. Lyons; comptroller, James A. Wendell; treasurer, N. Monroe Marshall; attorney general, Charles D. Newton; state engineer, Frank M. Williams; associate judges of the court of appeals, Frederick E. E. Crane and Emory A. Chase; United States senator, James W. Wadsworth.

MISSOURI BACK IN G. O. P. FOLD

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—Missouri today was back in the Republican fold. Senator Harding having carried the state by 50,000 majority. The tremendous sweep of votes toward Harding apparently carried the bulk of the Republican state ticket into office, including Arthur M. Hyde as governor. Hyde's lead, however, is uncertain and the final tabulations may swing him in favor of John M. Atkinson, the Democratic nominee. Seldon P. Spencer, however, is assured of re-election to the United States senate over Beckwith Long, a pro-league Democrat. Three supreme court judges and a court of appeals judgeship have also been named by the Republicans.

Run Into Car Abroad.
During the rain last night Crawford B. Styles, while starting his Ford sedan which had been parked on Wall street, near the theater, ran into the rear of a Hudson sedan that was parked ahead of his car and which had to be towed to Fifth. The windshield of the Ford was broken and the fender damaged.

Ballroom Party.
The annual ballroom party of the Winners 1920-21 of the Citizen A-venue Sunday school will be held tonight in the church parlors.

G. O. P. VICTORY IS STUPENDOUS

Harding Will Have at Least 391 Electoral Votes—Carried Ohio By Over 400,000—Estimated Popular Plurality of 6,000,000 Votes.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 3.—As late returns come in today from all parts of the United States, piling up the Republican lead, the victory over the Democrats was increased to stupendous proportions.

Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge swept Tennessee, returns now indicate, breaking the "solid south." This was the first time the Republicans had carried Tennessee since General Grant won the state in 1868.

Under the lead of Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge the Republicans carried at least 32 states; probably more. The New York World, Democratic, and the chief press supporter of Governor Cox, estimated there were 37 states in the Republican column.

Senator Harding will have at least 391 electoral votes, whereas only 266 were necessary to elect. The total may go above 400.

The Republicans will have big working majorities in both houses of congress. They gained about twenty more seats in the house of representatives and will have a majority of from 12 to 16 in the senate. A record state vote was polled, especially in the cities. There were indications that complete tabulation will show about 3,000,000 votes for Eugene V. Debs, but the Socialist leaders claim even more. The extent of their representation in the next national congress is still problematical.

Arizona and New Mexico were still in doubt at last reports, but the Republicans were making strong claims for the former.

Senator Harding carried Ohio by more than 400,000. Incomplete returns from Missouri indicated that former Speaker Champ Clark, one of the "wheel horses" of the Democratic party, had been defeated.

Senator Harding and Governor Coolidge carried New York city with a plurality of over 400,000, the biggest plurality ever given a presidential candidate in this city. The Harding plurality in New York state is unofficially estimated at 1,100,000. The outcome of the struggle for the governorship was still in doubt this afternoon. The complete New York city vote gave Governor Smith, Democrat, a majority, but up-state districts where Judge Miller, the Republican candidate, was strong, were still missing.

New York city's complete returns give Harding 785,576; Cox, 345,527; and Debs, 131,356.

National Republican leaders were themselves amazed at the extent of the victory. They estimated that Senator Harding probably would have a plurality of 6,000,000 votes. They did not attempt to explain the psychology of the avalanche, but attributed the tremendous success of the Republican majorities to the voters' vote.

RETURNS AT "Y."

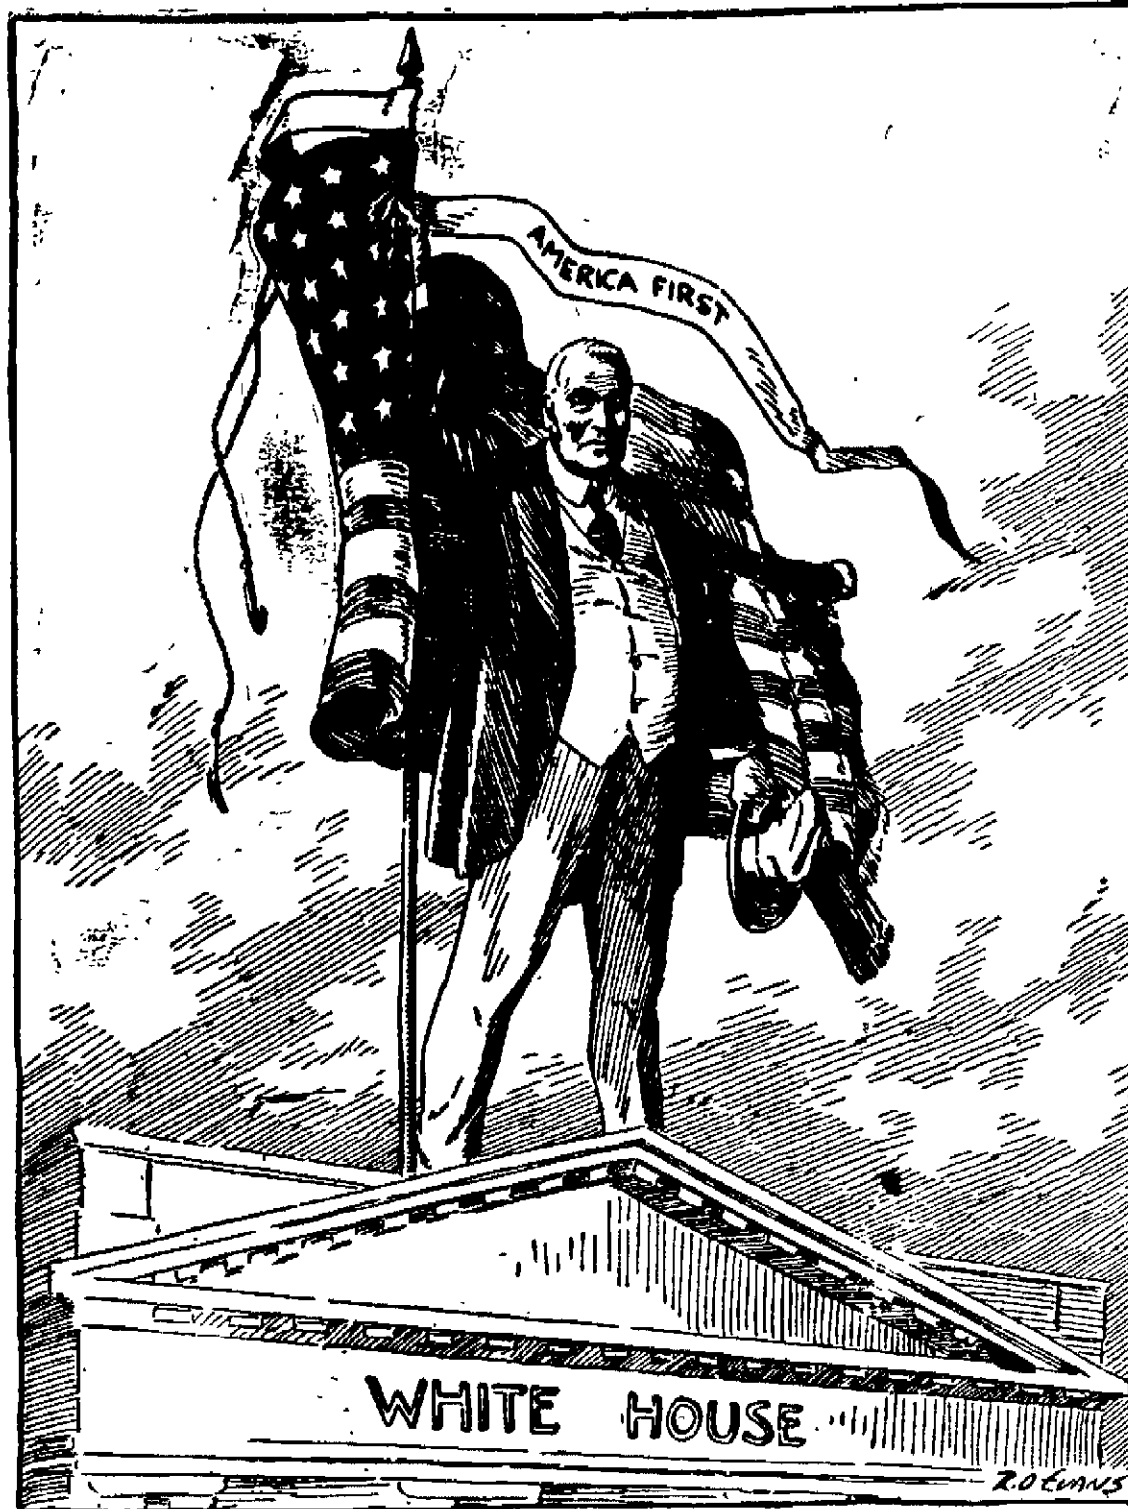

Hundreds Heard Election Results—Made Frenzied Projection.

Several hundred people secured election returns from the Chamber of Commerce and T. M. C. A. election return service last night.

Owing to the rain, the ballroom party was held in the Y. M. C. A. building instead of being thrown on the street on Fifth Avenue. Candles were placed on the front of the Y. M. C. A. and in the windows calling attention to the change, which was greatly appreciated by all within the service.

Parochial Schools Closed.
By Telegram to The Freeman.

Detroit, Mich., Nov. 3.—The constitutional amendment to abolish parochial schools in Michigan has been decisively defeated, according to returns today. The vote was about 2 to 1 against the measure. 1,464 precincts gave: Yes, 119,134; no, 225,125.

Victory

ROOSEVELT LOST HOME DISTRICT

Franklin D. Roosevelt's home district, the third in the town of Hyde Park, Dutchess county, returned a majority of 86 for Harding and Coolidge.

SAFRAN'S STORE IS BURGLARIZED

During Night—Evidently Work of Same Gang Who Entered Stores of Samuel Peract and Lewis Paul—Sawed Panel Out of Cased Rear Door to Obtain Entrance.

Some time during the night the clothing store of Abraham M. Safran at No. 58 Broadway was entered, and a quantity of jewelry and other goods taken by the burglars. It was evidently the work of the same gang who robbed the stores of Samuel Peract of Hasbrouck avenue, and Lewis Paul of Meadow street, the preceding night, who were familiar with conditions.

Mr. and Mrs. Safran occupy the apartments above the store, and Mrs. Safran says she remained up until about 1 o'clock this morning when she retired to bed. She said she heard nothing unusual in the store below, and it was not until about 5 o'clock this morning when Mr. Safran descended to the store that the robbery was discovered.

How the thieves entered the store, proved a problem as none of the windows had been disturbed and the front door was locked. Mr. Safran lighted a candle, as it was still dark in the rear of the store, and made an extended search and found that one side wall drawer lay on the floor with the goods scattered about it.

In the rear of the store is an entrance to the building that has no trace to the outside and the door had been used in years and a row of shelves hid the door from view. Evidently the thieves knew of the existence of this unused door. Out in the yard boxes and lumber had been piled against the side of the building, practically hiding the door from view. This lumber had been removed and the thieves had cut out the lower panel of the door and crawled through. In order to get into the store it was necessary to shove out the large drawer that was located under the shelves.

As they pushed the drawer out and away from the wall it struck a large steel ladder standing in the aisle and both drawer and ladder fell with a crash, but the Safrans were woken and did not hear the noise.

Entering the store by crawling through the door panel they had removed, the thieves worked at will among the stock and helped themselves to the more valuable of the gold watches and other pieces of jewelry. They also took two suit cases which they probably used to place articles of wear were taken, as well as some firearms. After the burglary the thieves left the store by the same way they had entered it.

Mr. Safran this morning was unable to estimate his loss.

REPN'S INCREASE SENATE MAJORITY

Margin of 12 Over Democrats Is Indicated, Providing Working Majority For Harding, Discounting Those of Strong Independent Views.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 3.—The Republican majority in the next senate will be at least twelve as a result of the unprecedented majorities given President-elect Warren G. Harding and other Republican candidates at yesterday's election.

The margin by which Republican leaders will control the senate will be sufficiently wide to insure that Mr. Harding receives adequate support for whatever domestic policies are laid down by him, it was declared at Republican national headquarters here.

Even if certain Republican senators of pronounced independence of action and views should offer opposition to the Harding administration on domestic questions, Mr. Harding still will have the support of a comfortable working majority in the upper chamber of the new, the 67th, congress.

It is expected, owing to pressing legislative requirements of the country, that President-elect Harding will call the new congress in special or extra session in March or April next, or soon after his inauguration on March 4.

The new senate will convene automatically, in accordance with recognized custom, immediately after Mr. Harding takes office, to give consideration to whatever cabinet and other appointments to office he may make.

Mr. Harding will dominate the new senate sufficiently, it was said, to insure the confirmation by the senate of his appointees.

While the Republicans will not command without support from the Democratic side the two-thirds vote necessary for the ratification of a foreign treaty or pact, Republican leaders expressed confidence that the result of the "great and solemn referendum" on the league of nations as constituted at Versailles, will influence a number of Democratic senators in their attitude towards the Harding foreign policies.

While Senator Harding is committed against the American people "going in" the league of nations as advocated by President Wilson and favors a new "world association of nations," Republican and Democratic senators who alike want the United States re-established on a peace basis as early as possible, are of the opinion that the Harding administration will soon find a solution of the treaty and league problem which will be acceptable to foreign nations as well as to this country.

Thirty-four senators were elected yesterday in thirty-two states, two seats made vacant by death being filled in addition to the thirty-two or one-third of the senate membership required by law.

The Republicans control the present senate by the narrow margin of one vote, because Senator Newberry, of Michigan, decided not to occupy his seat until his contested election.

ELECTION NIGHT QUIET IN CITY

The heavy rain during last night put a damper on the usual noisy enthusiasm that has heretofore marked election nights in this city, and there were only a few people on the streets.

There were good sized crowds at the Y. M. C. A., the court house, at Democratic headquarters, at the C. D. Halsey broker office in the Warren building, where the public could hear the returns, and at the Elks Club, at Kingston Lodge, F. & A. M. rooms, the Moose Club and K. of C., out the news of the avalanche that swept the Democrats off the map sent a greater number of those who were awaiting the returns home early. At 11 o'clock the streets were almost deserted.

CHAMP CLARK LOSES SEAT

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—Champ Clark, former speaker of the House of Representatives was swept to defeat in the Republican tidal wave that carried Missouri back into the Republican column. T. W. Hinkley, Republican, has piled up majorities which his believed cannot be shaken by later returns. Democratic leaders are now conceding Clark's defeat.

The election case is decided by the United States supreme court. That tribunal is expected to decide whether or not Newberry, charged with violation of the corrupt practices act, is entitled to his seat before the new senate convenes. Even if its decision should be adverse, Newberry would be certain to be replaced by a Republican appointee by the Republican governor of Michigan.

The election yesterday of five new Republican senators and the elimination of as many Democratic senators will increase the present Republican majority of two in the senate, in the event the Newberry case is disposed of, to twelve, at least. The new Republican senators are, according to the latest returns, Samuel Shortridge, of California, who is reported to have defeated Senator James D. Phelan, Democrat, for re-election; Samuel D. Nicholson, who is to replace Senator Charles S. Thomas, a Democrat, who ran independently, with Tully Scott as the unsuccessful Democratic-Non-Partisan candidate; former Governor Frank R. Gooding, of Idaho, who is believed to have defeated Senator John F. Nugent, Democrat, for re-election; E. F. Ladd, of North Dakota, who, in defeating H. P. Perry, will replace Senator A. J. Gronna, Republican, known for his "war record"; and Governor Peter Norbeck of South Dakota, who defeated U. S. G. Cherry, his Democratic opponent, and replaced Senator Edwin S. Johnson, who was not a candidate for re-election.

LEAGUE DID IT, SAYS SEN. REED

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Kansas City, Mo., Nov. 3.—Senator James A. Reed, "irreconcilable" opponent of the league of nations, blamed the covenant for the overwhelming Republican victory in the state. "They show the Republican candidates well in the lead in the fourth, fifth, eighth, and ninth districts. This would split the Missouri membership of the House evenly between the Democrats and Republicans, each with eight members."

His statement was as follows: "The league of nations did it. The American people refused to hand down the American flag. It was the policy of Washington against the policy of Wilson. It appears that George is still firm in the hearts of his countrymen."

New Broken Going For Cox.
By Telegram to The Freeman.

Albuquerque, N. M., Nov. 3.—Scattered returns from three-fourths of the counties of New Mexico at 10 a. m. this morning gave Cox a lead of 10,000 votes over Harding. Harding, (R), for governor, was leading Newberry, (D), by 3,000 votes in the same precincts.

REPN'S GAIN MO. SEATS IN HOUSE

By Telegram to The Freeman.
St. Louis, Mo., Nov. 3.—The Republicans appear to have raised four seats in the House of Representatives on the face of scattering returns from approximately one-half of the state. They show the Republican candidates well in the lead in the fourth, fifth, eighth, and ninth districts. This would split the Missouri membership of the House evenly between the Democrats and Republicans, each with eight members.

Republican State Chairman J. C. Huchens, claims, however, his party will gain six seats from 12 to the Democratic four members.

COX PROVES GOOD LOSER

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Dayton, O., Nov. 3.—Taking his defeat with philosophic cheerfulness, Governor James M. Cox early today set about "analyzing the situation" in a formal preparatory to issuing a formal statement of the result of the election and sending a message of consolation to his successful opponent. He expected to issue the statement "some time during the day."

There was nothing in the governor's manner today to indicate that he had just lost the presidency of the United States by perhaps the greatest plurality in the history of American politics. Friends who offered their condolences in dismal tones were met with a cheerful "Well what must be, will be," or "It would seem as if the people don't want me, wouldn't it, boys," and they went away looking as if it were they who had been defeated instead of "Jimmy" Cox.

Early today telegrams began arriving in which predominated such phrases as "game fight," "Republican year," "overwhelming odds" and "it would have been worse with anybody else." Another frequently expressed sentiment was that this was only the beginning and that Governor Cox's real opportunity would come in 1924.

"This may be only the battle of the Marine," a prominent California attorney, telegraphed Cox, under date of November 1. "If so," he continued, "your gallant fight has earned you the right to lead again four years from now, and I hereby enlist as a private."

DR. BARNUM NOW IN PHILIPPINES

Dr. Frederic Lee Barnum, a New York physician who arrived in Manila recently, has accepted an offer to assume charge of the Zamboanga Hospital and with Mrs. Barnum, will leave next week for this station. The Zamboanga Hospital was established by Bishop Brent and was at one time in the charge of Dr. Booth, who died in the United States while in the medical service during the war. Since 1918 there has been no house surgeon.

Dr. Barnum practiced his profession in New York for more than twenty years. During the war he held a commission in the army medical corps and later was with the Red Cross in Siberia. While in Siberia he was decorated with the Order of Vladimir for saving a Russian general from the hands of the Bolsheviks.

Dr. and Mrs. Barnum will be accompanied to Zamboanga by the Rev. R. T. McCutcheon, of the Zamboanga Holy Trinity Church, who has been consoling from an operation in St. Paul's hospital—Manila Times, September 24.

Dr. Barnum formerly lived on Clinton avenue, this city, entering the army medical service from here.

OLD GREECE IS IN STYLE NOTE

Greek Effects in Dresses Are Being Liberally Used by Paris Designers.

BLACKS, BROWNS, GRAYS LEAD

More Somber Colors Are Favored for Daytime Wear; Brilliant Hues Are Preferred for Evening Attire.

Paris designers are using ever so many Greek effects in dresses, writes a prominent fashion correspondent. The romantic marriage of the young king of Greece and his June visit to his bride, living in Paris, set the French dressmakers to thinking of the beautiful possibilities for fall fashions in the native Greek costume, both ancient and modern, the result being a decided Greek note in the autumn collections.

The wife of the king of Greece, who is very beautiful, and her younger sister, equally lovely, wear charming Hellenic dresses. The youth and beauty of these two girls plus the royal romance of one of them appeal to the creative genius of the Paris dressmaker and milliner, consequently "a la Grecque" will be very fashionable in Paris. As there is so much of real merit in Greek inspiration, one may expect many lovely things during the coming winter.

Designers Turn to Greece.

Greece is only one of the many countries to which designers have turned for their inspiration. Makers of clothes appear loath to give up any successful idea that has been brought out recently, and we find the old mingled with the new.

The Egyptian influence is still felt, as is the Italian Renaissance. To Persia have dressmakers turned for embroideries and to Russia for loose, baggy sleeves and blousing bodices as well as embroideries. Truly, we have an unusual mixture of fashions. Spanish styles have not relinquished their hold. Many ideas are still gathered from the picturesque costumes of Spain.

There are several things, however, upon which all agree—the slender silhouette, the more somber colors for day time wear—black, browns and grays leading—and, striking contrast to these, brilliant hues for the evening. They agree, too, in the tendency toward the high collar, long sleeve and the looseness of skirts at the hem, which tends to make them more graceful. All of these points are brought out in every collection. The collections are being constantly augmented and we may expect a great many interesting developments from the numerous ideas already suggested.

Dresses that fit in with the present day fashions may be made by using the forms of the ancient Greek costumes with few changes. In an interesting frock we see the straight Greek dress of about the fifth century. The embroideries are exact copies of those used on an old Greek costume. In the sleeve lies the only real change in the design. A medium shade of tan dervyn is used for this frock and the embroideries are in beautiful shades of brown. A narrow belt of brown leather girdles it.

Model of Mousion.
An interesting model is developed in coral monochrome de sole and gold cloth, with coral chain forming a girdle and shoulder straps. It will be recalled that the ancient Greek military dress showed plaits and even that of the present day carries a remnant of the idea of plaitings which were so characteristic of the costume of Greece during the height of their imperial glory.

We usually think of Greek dresses as having been simple and beautiful always, consisting of the straight chiton—a garment which was cut and partly sewn—or the costume adorned solely by means of drapery. The Greeks, however, had changing fashions, just as we have today. There were periods of embellishment, which saw the dress elaborately and artistically fitted.

A Greek effect with plaits, very much modernized, is developed in pale blue crepe Roman. In color this model suggests the Greek, being pale blue and gold, the latter forming the embroidery and bands on the skirt and on the jacket. A big double looped sash at one side is seemingly a continuation of the crepe bodice.

Autumn Models Have Plaits.

Any number of the smartest models for autumn have plaits. Coats, suits and frocks fresh from their recent voyage from Paris show plaits of every kind and description, which indicates that it is impossible to go too far with this trimming to please women.

One of the most extreme uses of plaits for the new season appears on a model suit developed in beautiful crepe Roman. Black is the color selected for this suit, the coat of which is very long and slightly blousing at a low waistline. The sleeves are loose and cut in one with the garment itself. The interesting application of plaits lies in the form of a fan-shaped panel on the jacket. This panel has fine horizontal plaits placed as closely together as possible. These lie very flat. The skirt has a corresponding plaited panel in the front, which hangs a few inches below the hem of the skirt itself. A lovely white embroidery and white fox collar and cuffs emphasize the vogue for black and white. A band of the embroidery is placed down either side of the panel and around a shoulder and back yoke in the coat.

Designers Use Erminette.

A few years ago, when women wore white furs in the sweltering heat of summer, the craze for white fur reached such an extreme that for some time after the well-dressed woman was loath to wear any white fur. We can only hope that the present-day revival will not run to any such extreme. For the present, at least, snowy fur trimmings are on models from the most exclusive houses.

Erminette is being extensively exploited as a trimming by the Paris designers. This fur very closely resembles real ermine, one of the pelts always greatly in vogue. While it is not as expensive as the real fur, it is not cheap. As well as being used for a trimming in the form of narrow edging and for large collars and deep cuffs, it is combined with seal in evening wraps. White skunk is used to make great muffing collars and deep cuffs on the most elaborate of evening wraps, some of the newest of which are formed of beautiful silver brocades.

One great designer has invented an entirely new shoulder line of Greek influence in which the material is held up over one shoulder and cut to appear as though falling off the other.

Embroidery is Featured.

Martial et Armand feature embroidery on the backs of garments only. A large disk design in contrasting colors is a favorite pattern. An embroidery design may extend across the back of a coat from shoulder to shoulder or be placed horizontally from shoulder to hem. On dresses the embroidery used in the latter way is very often of silver threads. Black embroidery on white velvet, white satin and white net is prominent. A few models show white embroidery on black, the preference being given to the former.

An interesting model in white and black has a foundation skirt and bodice of black satin, with the tunic of white net embroidered in a grape design, the grapes being white and the leaves black. White velvet dresses are embroidered in heavy black silk and jet.

Gray wool on blue serge is a combination that we have grown accustomed to and that is still used, but white worsted embroidery on black velvet is unusual. Gold and silver embroideries are not neglected. These are usually seen on chignons, lace or monogrammed.

Home Surroundings Count.

A house is depressing or cheerful, warm, comfortable, snug, dangerous, fun, or pictures, ornaments color into the color scheme of the room and a decorator were among any of these things that destroy the unity of the whole house or building. Colors must be balanced just as forms are.

Wonderful Wisdom.

"I hear that the authorities took Mrs. de Winton's child away from her." "Yes." They said she had too much money to raise it properly."—Lill.

Enemy of Pine Timber Only Kept in Check by Strenuous Natural and Artificial Control.

Special study has been made of the number of all stages of the western pine beetle in 330 square feet of infested bark selected from 67 trees, which represented an average infestation within an area of approximately 36 square miles, says the American Forestry Magazine. It is shown there is a large percentage of mortality between the young and matured stages in the developing broods, but that normally an average of about 150 beetles to the square foot of bark developed to the adult, or reproductive, stage; which would be 50,000 beetles to the average infested tree, or, say 30,000 beetles to 1,000 board feet of timber. Since it requires an average of about ten beetles to the square foot to attack and kill a vigorous, healthy tree, it will be seen, says the American Forestry Magazine, which is campaigning for a national forest policy, that all the pine timber of the western forests would soon be destroyed were it not for natural and artificial control.

WILSON, BROKEN, TO FIGHT ON

Received Returns Cheerfully and Had Good Night's Rest—Friends Say His Battle for Vindication of League Will End Only With Death.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Nov. 3.—President Wilson awoke this morning to build up a shattered hope—with worn out tools. Despite the terrible slapping blow dealt yesterday by his countrymen at the polls, he roused like the battle-tired veteran, he is and reported at his desk for duty. He was ready to carry on the burdens of the great office that will be his until March 4.

If his shoulders are stooped, they took up the pack no less willingly. If his cheeks are pallid, his jaw is set firm and square. If his hair is white, the keen brain beneath it turned no less insistently to the pressing need of things.

His friends call him a soldier, enlisted for the war.

His secretary, Joseph P. Tumulty, the man closest to him for ten years, said:

"He will never quit. He will fight with his last breath for the consummation and vindication of the league of nations."

President Wilson, his enemies admit, has never asked for quarter. He has never asked for sympathy. He has made no appeal for the love of the people of the United States, although those closest to him tell how desperately he desired it. He alone met the greatest reverse yesterday, the failure of America, to vindicate and approve his plan to make inviolate, as he sees it, the peace of the world.

So today, tired, broken in health, solitary, lonely, old before his time, his wounds untended except for the first aid bandages of his own spirit, he rose wearily to his task and met forth with halting steps on the counter-attack to win again the prestige he had lost. For there is no discharge in his war.

The president listened to the returns in his study last night. None of his political family or adherents were with him although the cabinet had gathered as usual on Tuesday. Mrs. Bolling and Mrs. Martha Bolling, mother and sister of Mrs. Wilson, called for a time but the president and his wife received the bulletins from the messengers and read them together during the early evening.

Admiral Grayson, the president's friend and physician, dropped in and carried the verbal reports of politicians and newspaper men in the executive offices.

While the president manifested the closest attention and interest, he received the news of Harding's victory as presaged in the early returns without comment of any sort, but with the utmost cheerfulness. He followed his usual routine, and sought his bed shortly after 3 o'clock.

After he had retired, Mrs. Wilson continued for a time to read the reports to him, but by 10 o'clock the president had dropped off serenely to sleep, before he had heard George White's statement conceding Democratic defeat.

WOMEN LEADERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC

And Now Plan to Organize Separate Party and Carry Out Plans Including Formation of New Cabinet Department to Be Headed By Woman.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Nov. 3.—Triumphant over their showing at the polls, the women are now preparing to make their voice heard in the new administration.

Alice Paul, chairman of the National Women's Party, and other leaders sounded a warning today that from now on the woman vote will act as an organized force and the voice of woman will make a loud and insistent noise in public affairs.

Programs announced by the various organizations indicate that the new congress will be descended upon by the largest army of feminine lobbyists ever mobilized for action.

President-elect Harding is to be reminded of his campaign statement that a department of welfare is needed with a woman at its head as a member of the cabinet. He will be called upon to make good.

Who the first woman member of the cabinet will be is already a subject of interest in women circles.

The next big thing on the program will be the national convention of women voters which will assemble here in February just before the calling of the new administration at the polls. It will sound the new battle cry of the militants represented by Alice Paul. The advocates of a separate women's political party, led by Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, are expected to dominate the convention.

Yesterday's election marked the closing chapter in the women's fight for "political freedom." Alice Paul declared today. Together with the other women leaders here she expressed delight over the outpouring of women at the polls.

Her opinion on the results of the election does not reflect the attitude of the women on the dominant issues of the campaign, since they had no time to organize to make their wishes felt and had no voice in the making of party platforms or the selection of candidates, which opinion is shared by many other leaders.

Can Elephant Jump?

Although they are generally believed to be able to do so, it is impossible, owing to weight and structure, for an elephant to leap either up or forward. A big elephant takes 6 feet 9 inches at a stride, but a 7-foot trench would be as hopeless a barrier to it as one of 70 feet.

Home Papers Deplore Delay or Death of League Involved in Cox's Defeat While Others Rejoice Because of His Meddlesome Attitude on Ireland.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

London, Nov. 3.—"America intends to let the rest of the world sink or swim as it may," said the Star in commenting today upon the result of the election in the United States. It continued:

"The United States is tired of war, Europe, the Versailles treaty, President Wilson and all that. President Wilson represents. All German and Irish enemies, of England represented the league of nations as an English dodge to entrap the United States. And so participation of the great republic in the pacification of the world is greatly delayed."

The caption on the Star's editorial was: "America First."

The Globe declared that the election of Senator Harding is a serious set back to the supporters of the league of nations. The Globe brands the league as "a fine but futile conception." It adds:

"Without America the league has no authority at all."

The Globe welcomed the defeat of Governor Cox, because, it declared "Governor Cox was pledged to interfere in Irish affairs in a way that England could not and would not have brooked." The Globe concluded:

"He (Governor Cox) returns to obscurity. It is a source of satisfaction. His offer to meddle in our affairs proved a tactical mistake of such magnitude that he suffered defeat unprecedented in American history."

BURNED IN BED.

William Kniffin in Vassar Hospital in Serious Condition.

Awakening to find his bed in flames, William Kniffin of Marlborough, employed as a farmer at St. Stephen's College at Annandale, was seriously burned at the Poughkeepsie Hotel in lower Main street, Poughkeepsie, shortly after 1 o'clock Tuesday morning. Robert M. Johnson, proprietor of the hotel, and a nephew, Edward Johnson, heard the man's cries. They broke down the door into his room, rescued him and extinguished the fire.

A hurry call was sent to police headquarters, and Sergeant Kimlin, with the patrol, took Kniffin to Vassar Hospital, where it was found that the whole left side of Kniffin's body from his waist to his neck had been seriously burned. Physicians there, however, believe that he will recover. Kniffin was on his way to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kniffin, in Marlborough, to vote, and registered at the Poughkeepsie Hotel at 11-10 Monday evening. The police believe the blaze was started by a lighted cigarette.

HIT BY AUTO.

Three Girls Injured Near Maiden Sunday Evening.

While Misses Edna Terpening, Cecilia Terpening and Florence Becker of Maiden were homeward bound walking, near the John G. Myers estate entrance on the Maiden road about 6 o'clock Sunday evening, they were run down by a big automobile driven by Harvey Scott of Catskill. All three young ladies were hurt, and after stopping the car, Mr. Scott brought the three to Dr. R. F. Dilling's office, Saugerties, where they were given surgical attention. All of them were suffering from shock, and Miss Edna Terpening sustained the worst bruises of the trio. Later they were taken home. The three young ladies were walking abreast at the time of the accident and three cars were coming along. To avoid a collision, the car of Mr. Scott was swerved and struck the girls, after which it ran upon the walk and hit the fence.

WOULD HAVE WOMEN PROPOSE

Writer Assails Old Idea That She Must Wait Until She Is Sought in Marriage.

More and more it becomes evident that a great and solemn referendum is needed to settle the question: Shall women propose? This matter—it is a leap year—has been agitating men and women for more than six months. When 1920 opened, this newspaper called attention to the fact that it was a leap year and suggested and even advised women to tackle men who were hanging back, and see that they did their duty and assumed the burden of marriage. We told women to boldly propose to men and see that they gave the right answer—an affirmative. There is no person quite so much of a slacker as a sluggish bachelor, and if he possesses not the nerve to ask a woman to marry him, then it is the right of the woman to demand that he marry her and see that he does. Weak arguments have been offered against women proposing; folk say it is unwomanly, that it belittles the girl, and a lot of nonsense like that. If persons will look at the matter reasonably and realize that it is the duty of every healthy person to have a mate through life, they will understand that it is as much a woman's right to request a man to marry her as it is the man's right to put the question to her. Wherefore we repeat what we have said before, that women should do the proposing in cases where men show an inclination to hang back or are bashful. If left to a referendum we feel sure the woman's right to propose will be sanctioned.—Chicago Evening Post.

Alfred LeFever of New Paltz fined $10 in Police Court; and Miss Mattie Smedes of Cedar Street, who drove his car on wrong side of street in Pined 85.

Shortly after midnight this morning Policeman Shader arrested Miss Mattie Smedes of Cedar Street, and her friend, Alfred LeFever of New Paltz, on Railroad avenue near Broadway. LeFever, who gave his age as 40 years, was arrested on a charge of public intoxication, and Miss Smedes, who gave her age as 24 years, was arrested on a charge of driving LeFever's auto on the wrong side of the street, and also for parking it on the left side of Railroad avenue.

This morning in police court Miss Smedes said that she and LeFever had driven in from New Paltz Tuesday evening. She said that she had driven the car part of the way and had driven it through Kingston to Railroad avenue parking it as charged by the officer. She was fined $5 by Judge Schrick.

Mr. LeFever said that while he might have been drinking he was not intoxicated, and was inclined to enter a plea of not guilty at first until Chief Wood informed the court that the police were ready for trial, and as far as the charge was concerned he had been in headquarters when LeFever had been brought in and that he was not only intoxicated but was using vile language. LeFever on his plea of guilty was fined $10 by Judge Schrick, which is the maximum fine for public intoxication.

BRANDEGEE AND MOSES RETURNED

In Overwhelming Republican Victory in New England States, New Boston Giving Harding Over 80,000 Plurality.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Boston, Mass., Nov. 3.—Harding and Coolidge carried the New England states with unprecedented pluralities.United States Senators Moses (R) of New Hampshire, and Brandegee (R), of Connecticut were re-elected by large margins.
Tague and Gallivan, (D), of Boston, were the only congressmen to withstand the landslide which swept all Republican state tickets into office. Congressmen Olney and Phelan Massachusetts Democrats, were defeated.

There were the outstanding results of the election in New England as shown by late returns today.

Harding and Coolidge rolled up a plurality estimated at 250,000 in Massachusetts, 347 cities and towns out of 354 showing. Harding (R), 493,034; Cox (D), 133,934, a Harding plurality of 359,100.

Republicans carried the "doubtful" state of New Hampshire by almost two to one. Late returns indicated a plurality of 12,000 for Harding and 24,000 for Moses.

Harding and Coolidge had large pluralities in Maine and Vermont. United States Senator Dillingham (R), in Vermont, was re-elected.

Boston, stronghold of New England Democracy, gave Harding and Coolidge a plurality in excess of 30,000.

An interesting feature of the Massachusetts state election was the election for lieutenant-governor of ex-congressman Fuller (R), over Washburn (Independent) and Coolidge (D). Fuller's plurality was over 184,000.

The "near beer act" was apparently defeated in Massachusetts, although it carried Boston.
Channing Cox (R), was elected governor of Massachusetts by a plurality of 382,950. Brown (R), was elected governor of New Hampshire and Sansouci (R) in Rhode Island.MRS. FITZGERALD

This afternoon City Marshal Rice delivered to Mrs. Beatrice Fitzgerald of Van Buren street her Ford car which had been taken during the summer from Smith's garage on Clinton avenue, and later sold to Stanley Shaw of Katrine. Mrs. Fitzgerald through her attorney, Chris J. Flanagan, started replevin proceedings and the car was seized by the city marshal and placed in the police garage. Last week in city court Judge Shufeldt presiding the case was tried, and at the close Mrs. Fitzgerald was awarded judgment against Mr. Shaw. It was brought out at the trial that Mr. Shaw had bought the car from Nelson Canline, a negro. Mrs. Fitzgerald claims that her brother, Richard Emy, presented the car to her.

REPUBLICANS WIN
BY HUGE NUMBERS

Harding and Coolidge, Governoratorial and Other Nominees Elected By Even Greater Majorities Than When Roosevelt Beat Parker.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 3.—The Republican avalanche which struck the country yesterday, burying Democratic national and state administrations under a staggering total of votes, was still too big today to be estimated in other than general terms.

Figures available early this forenoon, however, made certain that Senator Warren G. Harding and Governor Calvin Coolidge swept at least 31 states with unprecedented pluralities and carried to victory with them 23 Republican governors, a majority of at least 12 in the United States senate and a preponderantly Republican house of representatives.

The electoral votes of only two states appeared to be in doubt today—those of Arizona and New Mexico, each with three. Returns in these were so slow and the contest so close that it may take several days to determine the results.

The Cox-Roosevelt ticket carried the solid south, comprising 13 states, and nothing else, barring possible victories in Arizona and New Mexico.

The Harding-Coolidge ticket carried every state north of the Mason-Dixon line and every state north of the Mississippi river, with the exception of Arkansas, Louisiana, Oklahoma and Texas, and possibly the two doubtful states of the Mexican border.

On the face of today's general returns, Harding's popular plurality is estimated anywhere from 4,000,000 to 7,000,000 votes, possibly more and the Ohio senator seemed assured of having around 369 voted in the electoral college.

It is the greatest victory ever scored by a Republican candidate for the presidency, far exceeding that of Theodore Roosevelt in 1904. "T. R." had a popular plurality of 2,541,191 and had 336 votes in the electoral college.

Staggering pluralities were run up in many states, due to the addition of millions of women voters. The Republican national ticket appears to have captured most of the new vote.

New York gave Harding a plurality estimated roundly at 1,000,000; Pennsylvania, a Republican stronghold, three quarters of a million, Illinois 800,000; Michigan 490,000; California 500,000. Massachusetts 300,000 and Ohio, the home state of both candidates, gave Harding a victory roundly estimated at 250,000.

The Republicans succeeded in turning back into the Republican column every northern and western state which Woodrow Wilson carried over Charles Evans Hughes in 1916. Four years ago the central and far west elected Wilson. Yesterday those same states rolled up impressive majorities for Harding.

Fourteen states which in 1916 were carried by Wilson and which Harding carried yesterday were: Kentucky, Colorado, Idaho, Kansas, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Maryland, Nevada, New Hampshire, North Dakota, Utah, Washington and Wyoming.

Even in the southern states, the Democratic majorities showed, in many cases, heavy declines from 1916. Where Texas four years ago gave Wilson a handsome majority of 221,515, it was generally estimated today that Cox's majority will be many thousands less. Republicans even had strong hopes today of electing their men in several congressional fights. Other southern states showed like decreases.

The thirteen states which Governor Cox appeared today to have certainly carried are: Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Kentucky, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas and Virginia.

Republican national headquarters here were literally flooded with telegrams today and some of these would not concede the Democrats the so-called border states of Kentucky and Oklahoma until the last vote was counted. On the face of returns, however, they appeared to be safely in the Democratic column.

One of the unusual features of the election was that Judge Nathan L. Miller, Republican candidate for governor of New York, ran nearly a million votes behind the Republican national ticket, and yet was elected by a substantial plurality. "Al" Smith, Tammany Hall's favorite son, polled nearly a million more votes in New York than Cox and yet was defeated.

Miller's plurality was estimated today between 60,000 and 80,000. While the figures were not available today it appeared that the Socialist popular vote is going to be considerable, as compared with four years. In New York city alone, Eugene V. Debs, the prisoner-candidate, rolled up nearly 150,000 votes.

Figures on the farmer-labor ticket headed by Parley P. Christensen of Utah were not available this forenoon. The figures on other minor parties are not believed to be impressive.

Blumenthal Held for Grand Jury.

Augustus Blumenthal, aged 17 years, waited examination in police court this morning when arraigned before Judge Schrick on a charge of rape in the second degree, and was held to await the action of the grand jury. Reports from the South indicate that the Klan, famous in the reconstruction days of the Civil War, has been revived. Night riders have destroyed many cotton gins in the South and threatened further destruction unless cotton prices are kept up. The headquarters of the revived organization is in Atlanta, and Colonel William Simmons, formerly a Methodist preacher, is at its head. ARRAIGN ARMOUR FOR "GOUGING"

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 3.—J. Ogden Armour, president, and F. Edson White, vice-president of Armour and Company, were arraigned in Judge Knox's part of the federal district court today, on an indictment charging profiteering in meats on 157 counts. They pleaded not guilty and were held under bail of $10,000 each.

Like the four other officials of the company and the corporation itself, who were indicted on similar charges and who pleaded not guilty, the defendants were given until November 17 to change their plans, enter demurrers or make other motions, which they might deem necessary.

Neither Armour nor White, who had come on here from Chicago unannounced, had anything to say regarding the charges against them. When interviewers approached the distinguished head of the corporation, he merely shook his head and said:

"I have nothing to say."

Before leaving the court room, Armour went over to Arlm. with Arthur Riley, head of the government's profiteering squad, who worked up the evidence against him, shook him by the hand and said he was glad to meet the official.

Tague To Ask Recount.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Boston, Nov. 3.—Congressman Tague (D) apparently re-elected from the tenth congressional district over James E. Maguire (R) declared this afternoon he would demand a recount. He charged by inference that he had been cheated of many votes particularly by the use of "matinee voters" in ward 5. Martin Lomasney's ward. Tague's statement was by way of a shot at Maguire, who an hour earlier started a petition to force a recount. Maguire then charged fraud and intimated that he wanted the recount particularly directed at "charismatic" Tague's stronghold.

HILLQUIT AND LEE BEATEN

But Socialists Polled Record Vote and Re-elected All Five District Assemblymen—Hillquit Makes Big Gain.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
New York, Nov. 3.—A record Socialist vote was polled in New York and the indications were today that all five of the former Socialist assemblymen, who had been ousted from the legislature, were re-elected.

Socialist leaders claimed the election of Meyer London to congress from the twelfth congressional district, but this was in doubt, London had formerly been elected to congress from the same district. In addition, the election to the state assembly of Miss Marion Laing, a Socialist in the Bronx, was virtually assured by late returns.

Socialist leaders were keenly disappointed over the apparent defeat of Morris Hillquit, leader of the Socialist party, and Algon Lee, who were candidates for congress from Manhattan.

In the Bronx Edmund Seidel, a Socialist candidate for the state senate, made an exceptional showing and the Socialists claimed his election.

N. Y. EXPLOSION

Near Grand Central Station Causes Excitement.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Nov. 3.—A flurry of excitement was caused during the rush hour today by an explosion in a vacant lot near the Grand Central Station. The shock of the explosion shook adjacent buildings and caused great excitement among hotel guests.

Phil Bekeard of San Francisco, an explosives expert, declared he was of the opinion the explosion was caused by a bomb and turned over to the police what he claimed was the residue of a bomb. A 14-year-old boy was seen in the vacant lot lighting some substance a few minutes before the explosion.

W. Va. Governorship Close.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Charleston, W. Va., Nov. 3.—When Democratic and Republican state headquarters each stopped the compilation of returns this morning, it was apparent that Senator Harding had carried West Virginia and that the race for the governorship was close between Morgan (R) and Kontz (D), with chances favoring a Republican ticket. Although only a few scattering returns from a few counties had been received at that hour, owing to the difficulties of communication in this mountainous state, Democrats were generally disposed to concede the election to Morgan.

Salem Has Big Fire.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Salem, Mass., Nov. 3.—A general alarm fire today destroyed the factory of the Irving Box Company with a loss estimated at $150,000. Fanned by a high wind which handicapped the firemen, the blaze threatened to engulf a number of other wooden structures in the immediate vicinity. The fire started from an undetermined cause in a pile of sawdust near the scene of the disastrous fire which swept this city in 1914.

Still Hate Duty, Says Roosevelt.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Hyde Park, N. Y., Nov. 3.—The result of the election in no way changes the duty of this country to join with other nations in the splendid effort to solve international differences to end militarism and to avoid future wars for all time," declared Franklin D. Harding's First Message.

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Washington, Nov. 3.—The biggest cause for the Democratic defeat was the failure of the Democrats to force and predict in advance the change in the price of farm products and place the responsibility thereon on the Republican campaign, according to Albany Sydney Harrison, prominent her general and political man here of the Wilson administration.

BRITISH MINERS VOTE TO REJECT

By Telegram to The Freeman.
London, Nov. 3.—The balloting by the striking coal miners resulted in rejection of a settlement by a majority of 8,459. It was announced today. The strike leaders, however, decided that this majority was not sufficiently large to warrant continuance of the strike and therefore ordered the men to resume work.

MILLER TO URGE PRIMARY REPEAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Syracuse, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Judge Nathan L. Miller, whose election as governor of New York state is indicated by a plurality of more than 50,000, made it known today that when he takes his seat as governor he will urge the adoption of state prohibition enforcement legislation to conform with the provisions of the federal Volstead act. In addition, Judge Miller let it be known that he would urge the repeal of the state primary law. He promised the state a business-like, efficient administration. The judge was not inclined to comment on the election. He said, however, that he had no doubts about the success of his campaign.

P. R. R. DERAILMENT INJURES EIGHT

By Telegram to The Freeman.

Lafayette, Pa., Nov. 3.—The Pennsylvania Railroad's Pittsburgh-New York night express was derailed at Bradenville, near here, by a broken rail early today. Eight passengers were injured and a score of others received minor injuries. A number of persons barely escaped death when an overturned coach struck an abutment of an overhead bridge, knocking it down beneath the bridge, allowing one end of the structure to fall on the coach. Only the fact that the coach was all steel saved it from being crushed.

SOLDIERS BONUS SEEMS CARRIED

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Nov. 3.—A favorable vote in the larger cities of the state indicates that the state bonus for ex-soldiers has a good chance of victory in the elections.

Returns from the rural districts are not sufficiently complete to indicate the state wide trend toward the measure although its advocates admit the rural vote may offset the claimed victory in the larger cities.

New York city gave a heavy vote in favor of the bonus, it is claimed.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By Telegram to The Freeman.

New York, Nov. 3.—There was a wild scramble to buy Southern Pacific at the opening of the stock market, a huge crowd being at that stock with buying orders in large blocks and it was some time before it could be decided what to make a reasonable opening. After the excitement diminished, the opening was fixed at 25,000 shares at from 109 1/2 to 109 3/4 and 111, a gain of 5 1/2 points over the last sale on Monday. This opening was in direct response to the official announcement of the intention to distribute equities in oil lands to stockholders. There was similar excitement in Southern Pacific convertible 5's, which opened up 3 1/2 at 110. After the first fifteen minutes trading in Southern Pacific ranged between 109 1/2 and 110. Steel Common dropped 1/4 to 87 1/2 and Baldwin Locomotive fell 1 1/2 to 112. Mexican Petroleum was down 1 1/2 to 158. Santa Copper again demanded attention because of continued accumulation in anticipation of coming special developments and that stock rose 1 point to 21 1/2. After the first fifteen minutes strength developed in many of the industrials.

The room generally sold stocks on a large scale during the forenoon and many of the traders took a bearish position because of developments in the international industrial and financial situation and in industrial conditions in this country. Steel Common after rallying to 28 1/2, dropped to 27 1/2, and Baldwin Locomotive fell to 111 1/2, a loss of over 2 points. Crucible was down nearly 5 points to 118 1/2 and United Fruit lost over 5 points to 211. Associated Oil made a gain of 2 points to 117.

Buying of Canadian Pacific continued on a large scale during the early afternoon and the stock jumped to 114 1/2, a gain of nearly 9 points. The general market showed a reversal in tone, many issues recovering all the early losses. Reading rose to above 95. Steel Common recovered to 88. Crucible advanced over 2 points to 121 1/2. Baldwin Locomotive sold up to 112 1/2. Canadian Pacific 125 3/4. International Paper 63 1/2. Mexican Petroleum 190 1/2 and Royal Dutch 76 1/2.

Under the leadership of Southern Pacific the entire railway list started a forward movement in the late afternoon. Southern Pacific rose to 116 1/2, a gain of nearly 11 points from Monday's close. Reading was also in good demand and rose to 101 1/2. Union Pacific rose to 127 1/2 and Canadian Pacific to 126 1/2. The spurt in the rails caused some short covering in the industrials and good recoveries were made in these issues.

Valuable to Science.

The telescope gives enlarged views of distant objects, the microscope shows only what is almost in contact with its lens, and by giving a means of making intermediate observations (the modifications of the Davon microscope have proven a boon to the naturalist. With great depth of focus and a large field of view, the short focus type, for example, has a working distance of 10 to 15 inches, and magnifies 15 to 28 diameters. An adjustable rubber-tipped rod serves as a rest to support the instrument at the desired height for studying such objects as insects, plants and rocks.

Savages' Knowledge of Iron. Explorers have been astonished to find in the wilds of Africa savages acquainted with the art of getting iron from its ores and working it. To smelt the ore, they use a primitive blast furnace of baked mud, with charcoal for fuel and bellows to engender the requisite high heat. It seems altogether likely that knowledge of these processes was originally derived by their ancestors in prehistoric days from the Arabs and Phoenicians, who then, as in later times, overran most of Africa.

Gave Him Idea for Balloon.

The invention of the ordinary balloon is said to have had an exceedingly simple origin, though some authorities give more than one instance of this discovery. A linen shirt was hanging in front of a fire, and Stephen Montgolfier, who is said to have invented the balloon, noticed that as the warm air rose it took the shirt with it. Quite a simple incident, which led to a remarkable invention.—Seattle Times.

Follow It for Yourself.

The following statement is attributed to a well-known statistician: "The business and other institutions of the United States of America are run by and more than 2 per cent of those connected with them, and would fall if those 2 per cent were withdrawn, or those 2 per cent, 4 per cent are the same of bankers, eight of business men, twenty-five of educators and thirty of preachers."

Removing Ink Stains.

To remove ink stains from either linen or cotton a weak sugar candy is required, but it is with much knowledge, an application of this candy on the ink stain and left to dry in a gentle sun, simply pour a few drops of fresh milk on the old stain and rub with a piece of rag, when the old stain will disappear quite easily. Follow in the usual way.

POULTRY

RIGHT STOCK FOR BREEDING

Fowls Should Be Healthy and Vigorous for Best Success—Yearling Males Preferred.

For success in raising chickens it is necessary to have healthy and vigorous breeding stock, for the lack of vigor in the newly hatched chicks is often traceable to weak parents. Only the most vigorous and the best grown birds should be put in the breeding yards. Each bird should be full of life and energy and free from any serious deformity.

Yearling hens are usually better than pullets for breeders, because hens are more mature and do not lay so many eggs during the early winter, and consequently do not reduce their vitality so much before the breeding season. Vigorous hens two to four years old can often be advantageously retained in the breeding yard.

The male bird chosen should be young and active. An early hatched, well-developed cockerel is usually satisfactory. poultry specialists of the United States department of agriculture affirm, or a good, vigorous yearling or two-year-old cock may be chosen. The hens used for breeding purposes should be given the best care possible; they should be provided with large runs and should not be forced for heavy egg production during the early winter.

DEADLY FOE OF LAZY FOWLS

When Trap Nests Are Used No Amount of Cackling Will Deceive Owner of Poultry Flock.

Trap nests are the deadly foe of the lazy hen. When they are used, no amount of cackling and appearance of industry can conceal the fact that she isn't delivering the goods. They are the one accurate way by which the owner of a flock can check up on the laying ability of the individual hens.

Besides being valuable in locating the drones, their use is advisable for the following additional reasons:

They help to make the birds tame, thereby tending toward increased egg production.

They furnish definite knowledge concerning the egg production of individual fowls.

They furnish the most satisfactory basis for utility or other breeding.

They show which hen lays each individual egg, thus furnishing the essential basis for pedigree breeding.

YIELD WHITE-SHELLED EGGS

Mediterranean Breeds Are Best Suited for Production—Do Not Make Good Sitters.

Poultry of the Mediterranean or egg breeds are best suited for the production of white-shelled eggs. Representatives of this class are bred largely for the production of eggs rather than for meat production. Among the popular breeds of this class are: Leghorn, Minorca, Ancona and Andalusian. One of the outstanding characteristics of the egg breeds is the fact that they are classed as nonsitters. That is, as a rule, they do not become broody and hatch their eggs. When fowls of this class are kept, artificial incubation and brooding are usually employed.

Small or dirty eggs should be used at home.

Early cockerels are going to bring good prices this spring.

Feed growing chicks a dry mash to which they can help themselves.

Stand by the hen, handle her right, and she will lay eggs with all her might.

Fine cut clover and sprouted oats are healthful and stimulating to young chicks.

Be sure that growing chicks have plenty of food so that they will make continuous rapid growth.

Never overfeed chicks by thickly scattering the scratch feed in the lot. Feed small amounts frequently.

Prevent eggs in the spring and summer for use during the fall and winter when eggs are scarce and high in price.

While their language is French their habits and traits are those of the natives of Hindustan. A process of rejuvenation perfected by Dr. E. G. Marr, a Baltimore physician who recently returned from Germany, will be given a trial for the first time in America in the near future. Dr. Marr, instead of transplanting glands from animals, uses the original human glands and forces them to function in a manner said to increase their inherent power. Dr. Marr said that in Germany much interest has recently been aroused by a book by Dr. Steinach, of Vienna, a prominent scientist, who discussed the practical side of the theory of eternal youth. Dr. Marr said he made a special study of the subject and found by experimenting on rats that the famous scientist was absolutely right, and stated that he had been able in several cases to prolong the life of the male rat by more than a fourth its normal span. The photo shows Dr. and Mrs. Marr and their son William, upon arrival from Germany.

111. The present majority of the Republicans is 33.
The Democrats gained one member in Indiana and one in Oklahoma, early returns indicate.
The drys apparently have won out in the districts where prohibition was the issue and have succeeded in returning the two chief exponents of prohibition in the house.

Representative Volstead, of Minnesota, father of the prohibition enforcement law, and Representative Randall, of California, among those elected to the house against the opposition of the drys are Deal of Virginia, Goldsborough, Blakenny, and Linthicum of Maryland, Poy, of North Carolina and Porter and Brooks of Pennsylvania. Returns change in the complexion of the house to forecast any great liberality on the prohibition issue in the sixty-seventh congress.

Gains made in the house by the Republicans were as follows: California 2; Connecticut 1; Illinois 2; Maryland 1; Massachusetts 1; Montana 1; New Jersey 5; New York 7; Ohio 3; Pennsylvania 5; South Dakota 1; Utah 2; West Virginia 1; Wisconsin 1. Democrats gained one in Indiana, and one in Oklahoma, according to present returns.

Purpose of Fly's Existence.
The fly is the Judas of animal creation, hated, loathed, destroyed, the very reason for its existence questioned by querulous mankind. Yet the fly, despised insect that it is, must serve a purpose, for nature makes few mistakes in her creation. That purpose is not hard to find. The fly is nature's agent to remove filth. Filth breeds the fly, so nature decrees it a sign, in order to provide for the removal of that filth. The fly, like the headache, is a result, not a cause. Where there are flies there is filth; remove the filth and the fly will cease to exist.

President-Elect Greeted Neighbors Who Came To Congratulate Him After Having Made Night No Noddy He Could Not Sleep.

By Telegram to The Freeman.
Marion, O., Nov. 3.—It was a tired but happy president-elect of the United States who awoke today at his green painted home on Mount Vernon avenue, Marion.

Enthusiastic neighbors, jangling cow bells, women twirling rattlers, boys beating drums and all anxious for a handshake, made it impossible for Senator Warren G. Harding to get to bed until early today. But he would not have had it otherwise, for he enjoyed every minute of it. Also Mrs. Harding. At midnight, when informed of the time, she exclaimed: "Oh, I thought it was only about ten o'clock."

Election day and his birthday marked the beginning of a new epoch in the senator's life. An hour after he had issued his first statement to the American public, he and Mrs. Harding went to his campaign headquarters next door and there, in the glare of intense lights, read additional returns and congratulatory telegrams while photographers clicked their cameras.

Until early today neighbors came with the children to express congratulations and invariably the president-to-be greeted them by their first names and made them feel as comfortable as old shoes. At 2 a. m. callers were going and coming at the Harding home.

Senator Harding frankly expected to win, but he did not expect such a landslide. That was a happy surprise for him.

Today he was busy reading and answering messages of congratulation which flooded his desk from all parts of the country. He was also interested in further election results which were furnished to him by special press association wires.

Palestine's Forests.
"What do you consider Palestine's greatest need?" Miss Nathan, a Red Cross worker, was asked by a prominent Zionist, says the American Forestry Magazine of Washington, D. C. Both were returning from the Holy Land, where their duties had taken them.

"Forests," was Miss Nathan's instant reply.

"What, before the much-needed industries are brought in?" exclaimed the Zionist incredulously. "Don't you think industrial rehabilitation should come before reforestation?"

"Doesn't the country's industrial life depend paramountly upon reforestation?" countered the Red Cross woman. "Palestine, without forests, means Palestine ever the prey of floods and famine; doomed to unending lands and to poverty. Even the industries must be assured fuel and power, and without means to produce these they must languish."

Uncovered Ancient Grave.
While excavations were being made on a small conical-shaped hill near Dolphin station, England, in preparation for the foundation for a monument, the workmen came upon an irregularly shaped stone measuring about four feet four inches square and six inches thick, which was found to be covering ancient human remains in their place of sepulcher. Fluted stones about four inches thick line the grave, which measures three feet nine inches by two feet by two feet. The bones are recognized as having been quarried locally. The grave was situated only about two feet six inches from the surface, and the deceased person had evidently been interred with legs drawn up. The stones have been replaced.

Feed for Horses.
It has been demonstrated that seaweed, after the salt has been extracted by a specific process, forms excellent food for horses and that the animals evidently enjoy it.

DOES IT PAY
to neglect that most important of the organs of your body—your eyes? Delay in caring for the slightest trouble may lead to serious consequences. Eye strain, burning and watering of the eyes, headaches, blurring, distant type, etc., are symptoms of eye conditions which you should seek to adjust before it becomes bad.

Speculated Bear Skin.
